

Tye MacDonald

Board of Directors

Tye MacDonald is a horse trainer specializing in both reined cow and cutting horses located in Belgrade, MT.

Tye grew up around horses and while his early career included packing into the Taylor Fork south of Bozeman and starting ranch colts,

An opportunity to begin showing reined cow horses in his mid twenties opened a door to the rest of his career.

Tye has been competitively training and showing performance horses for the past 30 years, show horses taking him from Montana to Paso

Robles, CA, where he competed among some of the best in the reined cow horse and cutting industries. Later returning to Montana to raise his family, he has continued to train performance horses for the public and compete at the open level in both reined cow horse and cutting.

Besides training, Tye does clinics, provides lessons, and has been a NRCHA carded judge."
