Non-Pro: This class is open to individuals who hold an NCHA Amateur and/or Non-Pro card. If the TSCHA member does not belong to the NCHA and therefore does not hold an Amateur and/or Non-Pro card, they may show in this class if they meet the NCHA Non-Pro criteria. Cowhorse classes may use the same herd but classes will be drawn separately and show separately (referring to the Bridle and Hackamore/Snaffle classes). If the total number of Bridle and Hackamore/Snaffle entries becomes too large for one herd, two herds may be provided at the show management's discretion. Bridle and Hackamore/Snaffle classes will alternate at the shows being the first class in the herd if one herd is used.

Cowhorse Hackamore/Snaffle Non-Pro*: Horses <5 years old. Non-pro competitors must own the horse they ride. Non-Pro's may show their horses in the same herd as the Open riders but are judged as a separate class. If the total number of Hackamore/Snaffle Open and Non-pro entries becomes too large for one herd, the classes may be run in separate herds at the show management's discretion. Riders can rein without any penalty and should be given credit for loose reins. NOTE: Non-pros can show horses older than 5 years old for one year only if they have never been shown before and have no NCHA earnings. Minimum of four (4) entries to run this class OR to combine with CH H/S Open.
