

Treasure State CHA | 2026 Show Rules

Classes offered for year-end awards (must show min 3 shows)

OPEN: Any professional trainer may ride and is not required to own the horse; however, if a Non-Pro elects to show in this class, they must own the horse they show. Riders are now allowed to show two (2) or more horses in this class. If more than two (2) horses are shown, rider/owner must choose which two horses to track points on the first time they show. Open to all horses regardless of monies earned.

Fresh | Points: Horse | Awards: 1st – 4th

COWHORSE BRIDLE OPEN: Horses >6 years old. One-handed in closed rein and romel, shown straight-up in Cowhorse-legal equipment. Any professional trainer may ride and does not have to own the horse; however, if a Non-Pro elects to show in this class, they must own the horse they ride. Riders are now allowed to show two (2) or more horses in this class. If more than two (2) horses are shown, rider/owner must choose which two horses we will track points on the first time they show. Judging based on NRCHA guidelines. If the total number of entries becomes too large for one herd, two herds may be provided at the show management's discretion. Chaps required.

Fresh | Points: Horse | Awards: 1st – 4th

COWHORSE BRIDLE NON-PRO: Horses >6 years old. One-handed in closed rein and romel, shown straight-up in Cowhorse-legal equipment. Non-Pro's may show their horses in the same herd as the Open riders (if combined) but are judged as a separate class. A contestant may ride two (2) horses to the same herd; however, they must specify at the first show which horse they wish to track points on for the show year - as points will not be combined for multiple horses in this class. Judging based on NRCHA guidelines. Chaps required.

Fresh | Horse ownership required | Points: Rider | Awards: 1st – 4th

NON-PRO: Any Non-Pro or Amateur may ride in this class regardless of earnings. Generally, the criteria are that the rider has never professionally trained or professionally assisted in a horse operation for pay. Non-pro competitors must own the horse they ride.
